Individual professional permission

Big Feelings, Small Moves | Progress is Progress LLC

Who this purchase covers

One individual professional using the deck with their own clients, students, or groups. It is not a school, clinic, agency, department, or coworker-sharing license.

You may

Keep the purchased files privately and print reusable sets for your own direct work. Give individual printed activity cards to your own clients or students as part of that work. Print replacements. A commercial print shop may produce copies solely for these permitted uses and should remove working files afterward.

Please do not

Share or sell the digital files, place them on shared staff drives, distribute complete decks for independent resale or giveaways, remove branding, rebrand the product, or supply Canva editing files. Colleagues need their own permission; department reproduction is separately quoted.

Scope and support

This permission covers the purchased edition and does not transfer ownership. A physical deck alone does not grant reproduction rights. For department use or questions, visit www.progresscounselingprograms.com.

Use with care

Educational practice activities, not treatment or a guaranteed result. Copyright 2026 Progress is Progress LLC, to the extent applicable. These permissions do not limit rights available under applicable law.
